No. 2:23-cv-00572-HDV-MAR

CONSENT JUDGMENT WITH PERMANENT INJUNCTION

1 Plaintiff and Counterclaim Defendant General Convention of the New
2 Jerusalem in the United States of America d/b/a Wayfarers Chapel (“Plaintiff” or 3 “Wayfarers Chapel”) and Defendants and Counterclaim Plaintiffs Calamigos Ranch
4 Corporation and Malibu Conference Center, Inc. d/b/a Calamigos Ranch
5 (“Defendants” and, together with Plaintiff, the “Parties”), having considered the facts
6 and applicable law, have agreed upon a resolution of this matter prior to a trial on the 7 merits, and have consented to the entry of judgment in favor of Plaintiff and against 8 Defendants as follows.

9 1. General Convention of the New Jerusalem in the United States of 10 America d/b/a Wayfarers Chapel is a corporation organized and existing under the 11 laws of Illinois, with its principal place of business at 5755 Palos Verdes Drive South, 12 Rancho Palos Verdes, California 90275.

13 2. Calamigos Ranch Corporation and Malibu Conference Center, Inc. d/b/a 14 Calamigos Ranch are corporations organized under the laws of California, with their 15 principal place of business at 327 S. Latigo Canyon Road, Malibu, California 90265.

16 3. Plaintiff filed its Complaint against Defendants on January 25, 2023
17 under United States Trademark Laws (Lanham Act of 1946), 15 U.S.C. §§ 1051 et 18 seq. (as amended), particularly under sections 32 and 43(a) of the Lanham Act (15 19 U.S.C. §§ 1114, 1125(a)), and under California statutory and common law.

20 4. Defendants filed their Answer on May 5, 2023, and included
21 counterclaims against Plaintiff under 28 U.S.C. § 2201, 15 U.S.C. § 1119, and under 22 California Business & Professions Code § 14230(c).

23 5. This Court has personal jurisdiction and subject matter jurisdiction over 24 the parties and this action, and venue in the Central District of California is proper.

25 6. Since at least as early as 1979, and in continuous use since that time, 26 Wayfarers Chapel has used a logo depicting the distinctive design of its chapel, as 27 well as the distinctive architectural trade dress of the chapel itself, including the 28

1 “circular altar” design and the double-stemmed “Y-shaped” mullions in the side glass
2 walls of the chapel, in connection with worship services, wedding services, memorial
3 services, baptisms, and educational and entertainment services, as well as related 4 goods and services. Wayfarers Chapel was included in the National Register of 5 Historic Places because it qualified on the basis that it “embodies the distinctive 6 characteristics of a type, period, or method of construction or represents the work of a 7 master, or possesses high artistic values, or represents a significant and distinguishable
8 entity whose components lack individual distinction.” Representative examples of 9 Wayfarers Chapel’s distinctive trade dress, as well as its trademark and logo, are 10 included below:

7. Wayfarers Chapel displays distinctive combinations of elements that, in total overall appearance, comprise distinct, non-functional architectural designs and trade dress as more fully set forth in the Complaint.

8. Wayfarers Chapel has invested substantial sums in marketing and advertising to build recognition of its products and services, including its chapel, which has resulted in the trade dress and trademarks becoming well-known to the general public nationwide and globally as an indication of exclusive source or origin in Wayfarers Chapel. As a result of its marketing efforts, and the strength of its intellectual property, Wayfarers Chapel has rendered its services tens of thousands of times to hundreds of thousands of people in connection with its distinctive, non-functional trade dress, resulting in revenue of millions of dollars.

9. Wayfarers Chapel enjoys a substantial demand for its services, notably because of the trade dress components of its chapel, and both the trade dress and trademarks have become well-known to consumers, the trade, and complementary

1 industries by virtue of widespread, long, continuous and exclusive use. Hereinafter,
2 Wayfarers Chapel's architectural design elements and/or "packaging" for the chapel
3 and its related goods and services shall be referred to individually and/or collectively
4 as the "Wayfarers Chapel Trade Dress."

5 10. Wayfarers Chapel owns U.S. Service Mark Registration No. 6817479 for 6 the Wayfarers Chapel Trade Dress, a copy of which is attached as Exhibit A, which 7 covers the trade dress of its chapel. The Wayfarers Chapel Trade Dress is described in 8 the Certificate of Registration as consisting of:

9 "[T]hree-dimensional trade dress depicting an interior design of a chapel
10 with extensive use of glass in the walls and with distinctive designs made 11 of wood or steel among the glass in the walls. The interior includes 12 arched gabled trusses and supports, represented by diagonal lining, with 13 glass walls filling the spaces between the gables and supports. The 14 diagonal lining is used to indicate the gabled trusses and supports and are 15 not claimed as a feature of the mark. The glass areas are represented as 16 open white spaces. The glass walls between the supports are divided by 17 narrow, Y-shaped mullions that create four sections: two trapezoidal
18 shapes on either side of the center body section of the Y-shaped mullion, 19 one section at the top that fills the triangular area created by the arms of 20 the Y-shaped mullion, and one long, vertical rectangular section in 21 between the two vertical, parallel center components making up the body 22 of the Y-shaped mullion. The ceiling includes triangular patterns among 23 glass panels in the ceiling. Acoustical panels represented in gray shading, 24 pattern parts of the ceiling. The glass walls rise from lower walls. The 25 back wall of the building consists primarily of glass and contains a large,
26 circular section of glass with a frame creating a circle design, surrounded 27 by beveled beams in the shapes of two vertical lines angled inward 28 connected on top by a triangular arch above the circle design. Below the circle design are criss-crossing linear designs that form a diamond below the circle, with lines extending at an upward angle from below the circle to the surrounding beams. The floor design utilizes two criss-crossing designs. The stones on the floor and walls are represented in dotted lining and are not claimed as a feature of the mark. The benches are represented in dotted lines and are not claimed as a feature of the mark."

11. The goods and services set forth in U.S. Registration No. 6817479 include “streaming of audio and video material on the internet” in Class 38, “Educational and entertainment services, namely, providing facilities for filming locations for movies, and television shows; video and film production” in Class 41, “Rental of banquet and social function facilities for special occasions, namely, parties and social events” in Class 43, and “Religious and spiritual services, namely, conducting religious worship, marriage ceremonies, baptismal ceremonies, and memorial services; marriage counseling; providing facilities for wedding ceremonies” in Class 45. The registration was granted on August 16, 2022, and identifies dates of first use and first use in commerce of at least as early as December 1979 for Classes 41, 43, and 45, and August 2016 for Class 38.

12. A representation of the Wayfarers Chapel Trade Dress as registered with the United States Patent & Trademark Office and shown on U.S. Registration No. 6817479 appears below:

13. Wayfarers Chapel also is the owner of design marks and variants thereof at common law and under state and federal trademark registrations (collectively, “Wayfarers Chapel Marks”) that include, but are not limited to, the following:

1           14. Plaintiff's Wayfarers Chapel Trade Dress and Wayfarers Chapel Marks,
2 including the respective trademark registrations for same, are valid, subsisting and in 3 full force and effect. Plaintiff represents and warrants that Plaintiff owns all asserted
4 intellectual property rights in the Wayfarers Chapel Trade Dress and Wayfarers
5 Chapel Marks.

6           15. Defendants acknowledge Wayfarers Chapel's prior use and ownership of 7 the Wayfarers Chapel Trade Dress and Wayfarers Chapel Marks in connection with 8 streaming services, education and entertainment services, rental services, and religious 9 and spiritual services including weddings.

10           16. Since at least 2019, Defendants — without the consent of Plaintiff — 11 have been marketing, advertising, promoting, offering for sale, coordinating, and 12 rendering through its website, social media accounts and in person, services in 13 connection with the Oak Room at Calamigos Ranch, photos of which are shown 14 below ("Accused Oak Room Design"):

21 The services provided by Defendants in connection with the Accused Oak Room
22 Design have included wedding receptions, entertainment, social functions, and a 23 location for filming for movies, television shows, and commercials, which are similar,
24 related and/or complementary to the services offered by Plaintiff in connection with 25 its Wayfarers Chapel Trade Dress and Wayfarers Chapel Marks.

26           17. Defendants acknowledge that the Accused Oak Room Design shown
27 above is confusingly similar to the Wayfarers Chapel Marks and Wayfarers Chapel
28

Trade Dress, and that Plaintiff has no control over the quality of Defendants' goods and services.

INJUNCTIVE RELIEF

21. Within a reasonable period of time prior to commencement of construction of the redesigned Oak Room, Defendants shall serve on Plaintiff their plans for changing the Oak Room pursuant to the preceding paragraph, with the understanding that reasonable changes to those plans may be required due to structural reasons or compliance with local codes. In the event that Plaintiff disputes whether those plans comply with the requirements of this Consent Judgment, the parties agree to first attempt to resolve the issue privately, then through non-binding mediation, and, if it cannot be resolved through these two preliminary required procedures, Plaintiff may bring the dispute to the Court for the Court to resolve the dispute.

PERMANENT INJUNCTION

Except as otherwise specified above, and in any event no later than January 15, 2025, Defendants and all persons acting under their direction and control including specifically their respective principals, officers, directors, shareholders, employees, agents, servants, and/or representatives, privies, related businesses, affiliates, successors and/or assigns, and all other persons, entities, firms or corporations acting in active concert or participation with them (“Related Entities”) shall be and are hereby PERMANENTLY enjoined and restrained from the following:

(d) displaying any advertisements or promotions used by or associated with Defendants in connection with the marketing, sale, or rendering of services in

1 connection with marks which infringe the Wayfarers Chapel Trade Dress and/or 2 Wayfarers Chapel Marks.

4 this Consent Judgment, then before bringing any dispute to the Court for resolution,
5 Plaintiff shall first provide notice of any such violation to Defendants and Defendants 6 shall attempt to cure the alleged violation and provide a good faith explanation for the 7 alleged violation within twenty-one (21) days. In the event that the alleged violation

Overview

The mission of the Wayfarers Chapel is to nurture the spiritual journey of wayfarers. Wayfarers Chapel is a Swedenborgian church that welcomes people of all faiths to our worship services and to celebrate other important passages of life, including memorial services, baptisms, and weddings.

Wayfarers Chapel is part of an open-minded, forward-looking Christian denomination, the Swedenborgian Church of North America. Our denomination was founded to help people be more open to the Lord's presence and leading, to facilitate the spiritual well-being of people, and to increase awareness of the new age in which we live.

Wayfarers Chapel is an open and affirming ministry, offering equal blessing and support to all people regardless of gender, sexual orientation, race, national origin, religious background, or chosen spiritual path.

Nestled in a grove of towering redwood trees, the natural sanctuary made of Palos Verdes stone and glass was designed by architect Lloyd Wright. The Chapel's organic architecture gives unique expression to the sanctuary as a sacred space that welcomes all wayfarers along life's path. With its breathtaking views of the Pacific Ocean and Catalina Island, the 3.5 acres of the Chapel grounds feature beautifully landscaped gardens, trees forming arched walkways, a reflection pool with a memorial fountain, a colonnade, a rose garden with walkways of engraved pavers, a hillside stream, and a visitors center.

The Chapel and its grounds are a living parable. The harmony of glass, wood, and stone, combined with the beauty of the natural surroundings, symbolizes the integral relationship of our inner world of mind and spirit with God's universe.

In season nine of The Bachelorette, Desiree Hartsock and Chris Siegfried celebrated their dream wedding here at the Chapel. On January 18th, 2015 the couple exchanged vows at Wayfarers Chapel and began their new life together as husband and wife!

The Bachelorette is just one of many television shows and movies that have filmed here at Wayfarers Chapel. You may have noticed the Chapel in scenes of: The O.C., Lucifer, Beverly Hills 90210, Sliders, Revenge, Innerspace, Endless Love, The Rockford Files, and True Detective.

Lloyd Wright, Chapel Architect

Shortly after World War II, Chapel Architect Lloyd Wright, son of pioneering American architect Frank Lloyd Wright, found his inspiration for the design of The Wayfarers Chapel on a trip in the redwood forests of northern California. When he saw how the redwood trees formed a majestic cathedral-like sanctuary, he decided to use that concept as the basis for the Chapel's design. The glass structure creates a sense of transient space, being simultaneously inside and outside. Lloyd Wright's design is one of the foremost examples of organic architecture and has inspired many other buildings around the world. Wayfarers Chapel is listed on the National Registry of Historic Places.

Gardens

Organic Architecture

Lloyd Wright designed the Wayfarers Chapel to be a tree chapel, a natural sanctuary set in the midst of a forest. Because the trees and plantings were as important as the other architectural elements, Lloyd Wright integrated the landscaping into the original construction plans. He designed the site, landscaping, and gardens to reflect the beauty of the botanical plantings found on the floors of the northern redwood forests of California. The task of implementing the botanical vision that began with the Chapel construction continues today, and will be carried out in the future. Extensive lawns and an outdoor grass amphitheater complete the 3.5 acres site, and complement the numerous gardens.

Arbored Walks

Native California plants and trees are called for throughout the grounds. Redwood trees are featured in the planting berms on either side of the Chapel. Planted more than a half century ago, they are just now reaching their maturity, fulfilling Lloyd Wright's vision. Italian Stone pines are planted along the sidewalks surrounding the Chapel and their graceful branches arching overhead to form arbored walks. Other trees are planted around the grounds including: Canary Island pines, olives, bays, peppers, apple, toyon, apricot, ficus, and junipers.

Forest Floor Garden

The Forest Floor Garden, located between the Chapel and the Reflection Pool, features many of the plants found in redwood forests, including: ferns, azaleas, irises, rhododendron, and redwood sorrel.

Rose Garden

The Rose Garden borders the Colonnade and is known for its roses that bloom year round. The rose garden is also home to some Biblical plants, including lilies, crown of thorns, and aloe.

Naturalness

To maintain the simplicity and naturalness of the gardens and grounds, a master landscape plan, initiated by architect Lloyd Wright, and enhanced by his son, architect Eric Lloyd Wright, guides the maintenance and development of all the Chapel grounds. Many of the plantings gracing the Chapel site were given as memorials. The landscape plan may be viewed in the Visitors Center where information on memorial plantings may also be obtained.

Videos

The Wayfarers Chapel Video team has filmed multi-camera weddings at the Chapel since 2004. Their experience and knowledge in capturing weddings at Wayfarers Chapel is unparalleled. Using state of the art camera equipment and Internet webcasting technology, Wayfarers Chapel Video is capable of exclusively capturing multiple-camera angles and blending these shots into a seamless production that can be given to the couple before they leave the grounds. The ceremony can be webcast live to be viewed remotely by family and friends who are unable to attend.

Our video team is also available to capture memorial services and baptisms.

"Our goal is to provide a quality, well-produced program of your wedding ceremony that can be enjoyed instantly and forever." - Steve Smith, Wayfarers Chapel Video Director
